Dear Roena,

Read your query about James & Hester (POTTER) HALEY, in Potter Profiles # 28. I'm pretty sure you & I are cousins, if you're the daughter of William Potter Bayes & Mahala Ann Partee, we're 3rd cousins twice removed. I'm a gr-gr-gr-grandaughter of Edward Potter, brother of Hester (Potter) Haley. Enclosing a copy of letter written by Hester to Edward & his wife, Lucy C (Austin) Potter. Note written at the end of the letter, describes the illness & death of Hester, by her son, William P. Haley. Our common ancestor are the parents of Hester & Edward, William & Catherine "Caty" (FREEMAN) POTTER

I constantly search for genealogy clues, & in July 1993, located a second cousin in VA. and another cousin in OR., a delightful story.

Attaching basic outline of Potter family data, Let me hear from you, we can compare information. I have quite a collection of data. Would love to see your picture of Hester?

Sincerely,

Marian C. Reid

Dear Roena,

Received your packet and yes, those brown envelopes are wonderful! Enjoyed reading all the data you sent, thank you! I did not have any of the land maps. I did make copies of deeds signed by Wm. Potter when we visited Trumbull Co., last spring. Your maps make the picture complete. Looks like you've had contact with Franklin Miller Jr., in Gambier, OH.? In 1992 we corresponded, I sent him my family group sheets and info on my grandmother's Wilson family.

In the DAR file you sent, I have trouble connecting the hero (John Potter, Jr.), to our William Potter? The DAR paper states, JP, Jr. was born Nov-1748 in NJ. Our William was born March-1767 in NJ. JP, Jr. would have been 18 years old? JP, Jr.'s first marriage is listed as 11-4-1772, to Hepzebath Allison, died 1777. Who was the mother of our William in 1767? Have you seen the NJ source documents? Do you think hero, John Potter, Jr. is our John Potter who lived in Trumbull Co., 1801, etc (the tailor?). Returning to Fayette Co., PA. before his death in 1826? The Samuel Potter, Sr., mentioned in the DAR record, was a brother to our William Potter? Is that what you make of this?

Sorry to hear your brother is in the hospital. Do you get to visit with him often or is Martinsburg, W.VA. quite a distance from where you live? How are you doing, with all the bad storms you've had this winter? It isn't hard to understand why my grandmother moved to CA. in 1907! We're so spoiled here in CA., babies, compared to what you must endure each winter. It never snows here, if we want to see snow, we drive 75 miles up into the mountains! It already feels like spring, the daffodils are almost through blooming. My tomato seeds have sprouted, temp. may still drop at night, so plants can't be put in the ground yet. Thank you for answering my letter. Write when you can, & let me know what you think about the DAR record?

Sincerely,

Marian

Dear Robert,

Received your packet and yes, those brown envelopes are wonderful. Enjoyed reviewing all the data you sent, thank you! I did not have any of the land maps. I did make copies of data signed by Wm. Potter when we visited Turnbull Co., last spring. Your maps make the picture complete. Looks like you've had contact with Franklin L. Brown Jr. in Gampier, OH? In 1882 we corresponded. I sent him my family group sheets and info on my grandmother's African family.

In the DAR file you sent, I have trouble connecting the dots (John Potter, Jr.) to our William Potter. The DAR paper states, "Jr. was born Nov-14-1814 in NJ. Our William was born March-1817 in NJ." "Jr. would have been 18 years old." "Jr. Jr.'s first marriage is listed as 11-4-1837 to Elizabeth Wilson, died 1877. Who was the mother of our William in 1817? How you read the NJ source documents? Do you think that John Potter, Jr. is our John Potter who lived in Turnbull Co., 1801 etc. the father? Returning to Fayette Co., PA after his death in 1829. The Samuel Potter, Sr., mentioned in the DAR record, was a brother to our William Potter? Just what you make of this?

Sorry to hear your brother is in the hospital. Do you get to visit with him often or is it difficult? We're quite a distance from where you live? How are you doing with all the bad things you've had this winter? I just had to question why my grandmother moved to CA in 1907? Was it so quiet there in CA? I hope, compared to what you had to endure with cancer, it was a relief. I've want to see you, see him 75 miles up in the mountains, a steady look like you. The details are sketchy through browsing. My family seems have spreaded, I am, may still drop in right, so please don't be out in the ground yet. Thank you for answering my letter. Write when you can. & let me know what you think about the DAR records?

Sincerely,

William

The 1849-87 diary of Lucy Closson [Austin] Potter was transcribed from five handwritten journals by Marian Carol [Hooker] Reid. (daughter of Kenneth Warren Hooker, and granddaughter of Winifred [Wilson] Hooker) A special note of appreciation to Sally Anne McKean and Mary Jane Hendricks for their gracious access to the original journals, making this project possible.

Journals I, III, IV, & V were discovered in 1993 in Reston, Virginia, in the possession of Sally Anne [Holcomb] McKean. (daughter of William Chester Holcomb, and granddaughter of Catherine "Kate" Potter [Wilson] Holcomb)

Journal II was located in 1992 in Milton-Freewater, Oregon at the home of Mary Jane [Scott] Hendricks. (daughter of Closson Scott, and granddaughter of Elma Josephine [Wilson] Scott)

The 1849-87 original journals are in good condition. Although a few pages proved impossible to read under any circumstances, most faded pages were made legible using a photo-copy process. Misspelled or duplicate words were not corrected. The symbol "?.....?" was used if the spelling was unclear. Parentheses at the end of paragraphs was used to identify notes from the diary margins. Punctuation was used only if clearly visible on the page.

The first diary begins in December 1849 and continue until November 1886. Throughout her journals, Lucy C. Potter describes a vivid history of her time. Each visitor to the Potter farm is identified along with the varied details of pioneer life in the community. As the journals of eighty year old Lucy come to an end in 1886, she continues to record in her book and complains of the frustration at finding herself old and feeble.

 Son of Francis Porter (from County Tyrone, Ireland to US 1791) and Ruth Cook
 Lucy A. Potter was Dr. Porter's 2nd wife; one of the children by his first wife Lucy J. Turner (1812 = 1863) was Colwell Porter (d. in Civil War) - for another Colwell Porter see P131.
 A history book has Dr Porter and his wife each living 10 yrs (exactly) longer than cem records given above.
 P134. AUSTIN J. POTTER (c 1834 = 29 Mar 1853) His death at age 19 reported in several area newspapers.
 He is not in the 1850 census of household of Edward A. and Lucy (Austin) Potter. In FM Sr.'s 1902 family list, only William, Edward, Advance, and Freeman are mentioned, in that order. No Austin J., who, along with the others, would have been FM Sr.'s mother's first cousin. At the time of the summer 1850 census, Austin J. was either 16 or 17 years old. Edward A. is given as 15 years old.
 It is just possible that Austin J. was 2 years older than Edward, or even a twin if Edward's age is untrustworthy.
 If so, we must assume he was not in the census because he was working away from home at age 17.
 P135. EDWARD A. POTTER (c. 1835 = 10 Jan 1878); Civil War [vet]; age 15 in 1850 census. Cem record has b 1828.
